Miss MIRTA BORRAS ALMANZA on 6/22/65, stated that she had just returned from two weeks vacation in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where she was in contact with Cuban exiles associated with the JURE. Miss BORRAS advised that during this trip to Puerto Rico, she was not in contact with MANUEL RAY. Miss BORRAS stated that there was no activity planned for the JURE in the immediate future, and she saw no possibility of any military action being undertaken by the JURE. Miss BORRAS further stated that the same is true for all anti-Castro organizations, that is, that there is no organization among the Cuban exiles that can or will take any military action against Cuba. Miss BORRAS stated, in her opinion, the entire anti-Castro activity is at a stand-still.

MANUEL RAY, head of the JURE, had failed to keep promises which he had made and the exiles see no hope of the JURE accomplishing anything in the way of bringing about military activity inside Cuba.

NY T-3, a member of the JURE, and a member of the Military Action Section of the JURE, on June 22, 1965, advised that there were no military plans for the JURE at the present time. NY T-3 said that the JURE has encountered grave financial problems and has also encountered a certain amount of animosity from the Cuban exiles.

NY T-3 stated that the JURE still has its boat which is called the "Venus" and this boat currently is in San Juan, Puerto Rico. NY T-3 stated that the JURE does not have sufficient military equipment to carry out any military action inside Cuba, and has no plans for any military action in the near future.

NY T-3 stated that all anti-Castro organizations at the present time are encountering similar difficulties as the Cuban exiles are depressed because they see no possibility for any immediate activity against the government of Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO. NY T-3 stated that there was no hope for the Cuban exiles to carry out any activity against Cuba and that the only hope the Cuban exiles had was that some uprising would occur inside Cuba which would bring about the downfall of the present Cuban Government.
